

An illustration of a woman with short black hair, wearing a grey suit, standing on the left and pointing upwards with her right index finger. To her right, a white dog with a red collar and a magnifying glass around its neck is walking on a winding orange path. Next to the white dog is a smaller pink dog with a red bow. The pink dog is holding a blue book with a black arrow pointing upwards. The background is a green hill with a red flag at the top of the path. The Japanese text 'がんばろうね' (Ganbarou ne) is written next to the pink dog.
